

SharePoint Lead | Web Analytics | Business Analysis and Reporting

- Overall experience of nine years in passionately dealing with software development and its applications.
- Experienced in designing and developing Microsoft InfoPath 2010/2013 forms.
- A self-learner individual committed to high quality service, performance and follow-through.
- Confident result-oriented, willing to learn and adapt to the environment quickly to meet the goals.
- Possess DHS Security Clearance.

EDUCATION

- | | |
|---|-----------------|
| Arkansas State University, Jonesboro, AR | May 2009 |
| Master of Science in Computer Science. | |
| Jawaharlal Nehru Institute of Technology, Hyderabad, India | May 2006 |
| Bachelor of Technology in Computer Science. | |

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Governor's Office of Homeland Security & Emrg Preparedness, Baton Rouge, LA Jan 2013 – Present
SharePoint Lead

- Project Lead for architecture and develop high profile web based intranet applications.
- Setting up SharePoint governance techniques and design project plans with milestones.
- Lead and Coordinate the development efforts of all intranet websites and web apps, was also responsible for all architectural considerations and technical decisions regarding applications development and performance monitoring of SharePoint solutions;
- Performed technical analysis of business requirements and proposed solutions that can be delivered with minimal customizations.
- Established and utilized software development standards and processing.
- Review Features deployed in final web site and applications to meet client requirements and standards for performance.
- Created user interface for Visual Studio and SharePoint Designer.
- Responsible for estimating work content and achieving planned timelines.
- Proficient at workflows using the out-of-the-box or custom designed complex workflows using SharePoint designer 2010, 2013.

Tools: Microsoft SharePoint, SQL, SSRS, Tableau, Java Script, XML, Google Analytics.

Governor's Office of Homeland Security & Emrg Preparedness, Baton Rouge, LA Jul 2009 - Dec 2012
System Analyst

- Created Sites and Sub-sites within the site collections for Various Departments and accordingly created new Site Permission levels and Groups for SharePoint 2010 site.
- Designed an InfoPath form with different views using InfoPath 2010 designer and published the form to the SharePoint 2010 form library as a site template.
- Created data connections between the InfoPath fields and the SharePoint list so as to extract the data from the SharePoint lists.
- Developed Complex custom workflows using both SharePoint designer 2010 and Visual studio 2010.
- Configure KPI's (Key Performance Indicators), out-of-the-box and custom web parts to interact with MOSS 2007 lists, libraries, BDC and other data sources.
- Using custom Classes extensively for coding the business logic and using .Java script as a client side scripting language.
- Created tables, views, stored procedure using SQL.

Tools: Microsoft SharePoint, SQL, HTML5, PHP, CSS3, ASP.NET 4.0, .NET Framework 4.0, Microsoft Internet Information Services, Java Scripts, SSRS.

Arkansas State University, Jonesboro, Arkansas.

Jan 2007 - Jun 2009

Graduate Assistant

- Provided assistance in setting up SharePoint Intranet portal site.
- Worked with WSS object model for site collection organization, list manipulation.
- Applied the SharePoint styles to the web parts using the SharePoint style classes so that the web parts will have the same look and feel as of the web part page they are deployed into.
- Workflow set up to support communications between Departments professors and Students to support assignment submissions. All changes will be made by the concerned professor before assignments will be approved.
- Used SQL Adapter to update the Database using Stored Procedures.

Tools: Microsoft SharePoint, Adobe Photoshop/Dreamweaver, HTML, CSS, C++, Java Applets.

CERTIFICATIONS

Microsoft Business Intelligence Suite | MS SQL Server 2008 | Data Integration, Transformation (ETL) | Google Analytics | SharePoint Administrator | SharePoint Developer | Project Management

LEADERSHIP AND ACHIEVEMENTS

- Honored as the Class Representative for a class of 310 people to closely monitor their concerns at Infosys.
- Took charge as the Vice President of the Indian Student Association in Arkansas State University, conducting new student orientations, introducing eco-friendly methods for the reduction of carbon emissions.
- Developed an innovative parabolic trough solar water heater, which is now in application at Vellore Institute of Technology for production of hot water using solar energy.
- Organized a national-level event on “Radio Frequency Identification Devices” that was attended by over 100 universities.
- Served as the Event Publicity Director and Media Coordinator for national-level symposia in Jawaharlal University, coordinating various media communications.